

Foundry Careers

The Opportunity:

- Join our foundry manufacturing team!
- Aluminum castings are manufactured for various industries including medical, military, aerospace, transportation and telecommunication.

What You Will Do:

- Set up, operate, or tend molding or grinding related tools to provide finished product to our customers.
- Inspect or measure finished castings to determine conformance to specifications, using measuring instruments such as gauges or micrometers.

What You Will Need:

- Willing to work with a team to meet production requirements.
- Willing to learn and grow in foundry operation abilities.
- Ability to read a process sheet via computer.
- Ability to lift 65 pounds.
- Must pass a pre-employment drug screen, physical, background check and have a valid driver's license.
- Willing to work all shifts and weekends.

The Reward

- We are looking for career-minded individuals! The successful candidate will enjoy a challenging and rewarding career.
- We encourage personal development through training and promote from within.
- Wages: Start $15.85/hour, with progressive pay increases and an opportunity to earn more than $21.00/hour.
- Excellent Benefits, Medical, Dental, Life Insurance; Paid vacation; and 401K program